Understanding Your Financial Health - Bowral

When: 9.00am – 12.30pm on Tuesday 07 April 2020

Where: Henrietta Rose Room (rear Old Town Hall), 16-24 Bendooley Street, BOWRAL, NSW 2576

You know you've got a great product or service and you know who your target customers are, how to reach them and what direction you want your business to take. Now it's time to look at the financial aspects of being in business...

How much is this venture going to cost you in the preparation and early stages before you have any clients? How do you work out the price of your products or services? What is your operating budget and your forecast breakeven point? How do you keep track of who owes you money (your debtors) or who you owe money to (your creditors)?

There is much to learn about business financials and for many, this can be the scariest and often the most neglected part of owning a business. Join our experienced business advisors as they work through the key financial considerations for you to start and grow your young business.

You will learn how to:

- Identify what it will cost you to set up and operate your business in the early stages and before you have enough customers to breakeven or maintain a profit
- Access business finance and make financial decisions that are key to your business operations
- Access business finance and make financial decisions that are key to your business flourish

You will leave this session with:

- A knowledge of your financial commitment and how much start-up/early stage capital you will need to build a successful business.
- Sources of business finance and the impact they may have on your business
- Sources of business finance and the impact they may have on your business

A one-to-one follow up meeting is available to assist you further and embed the ideas/principles of the session. Please book with Narelle at the session.

This workshop is fully subsidised through BusinessConnect for NSW Businesses in bushfire affected regions and is free to attend. Due to limited places, REGISTRATIONS ARE ESSENTIAL, so book now!
